Just in time for summer, and just in time for Seattle Beer Week, Stoup Brewing just announced that its much-anticipated beer garden will open on Saturday, May 9th. To commemorate the occasion, Stoup will also release its Citra IPA. They've got more than that planned for the big day. See the official announcement below:

Grand Opening Weekend for Stoup Brewing Beer Garden

SEATTLE, April 24, 2015 – On Saturday, May 9, at 12pm, Stoup Brewing's long awaited beer garden will open on what also happens to be the first Saturday of Seattle Beer Week.

The occasion will be marked by the release of Stoup's Citra IPA. In addition to a full range of beers on tap, Fez on Wheels will be parked out front to feed the hungry. Beer lovers and non-drinkers alike can also indulge in Soda Jerk Sodas and ice cream from Balleywood Creamery.

Adding to the fun, Caricature artists Christina and Clifton Landry of 4D-Artistry will provide fun(ny) remembrances of the celebration.

The festivities continue on Sunday May 10, also known as Mother's Day, when we're offering $1 off pints for moms and Taylor Shellfish will be shucking and grilling fresh northwest oysters for $2 a piece from 1pm until they run out.

Opened in October of 2014, Stoup Brewing is a craft brewery and taproom in the Ballard neighborhood of Seattle, Washington. Stoup Brewing communicates a respect for both the art and science of beer by cultivating a warm and communal environment – a place for friends to gather and for enthusiasts to chat with the brewers over a well-fashioned, delicious beer.

Stoup is open 3-9pm Tuesday through Thursday 3pm – 10pm on Friday; 12-10pm on Saturday and Sunday from 12pm-9pm. Happy Hour is Tuesday through Friday from 3pm – 5pm. For more information, call 206.457.5524 or visit www.stoupbrewing.com.

Stoup Brewing is located at 1108 NW 52nd Street – Seattle, WA 98107
