

How You Can Support Local Seattle Businesses During COVID-19

March 22, 2020
What's Up NW
By: Lesley Kilp

I think we are all thinking the same thing these days. Our world has completely changed because of COVID-19. Everything feels off. I've been around this planet for 40 years and I can't remember a time when the ENTIRE WORLD was told to STAY HOME. You've heard it all and seen it all, so I'm just going to stop here and let you know about some local restaurants and businesses that you may not have thought of during this time who are offering to help you if you can help support them! Each photo has a direct link to the company sites. I will keep this blog post updated as I get more information from local businesses.

Stay safe out there everyone and I hope to see you all on the other side of this.

